Help Pick Our State's Environmental Champions

environmental non-profit to receive a $5,000 grant from Aquarion. Students are eligible for an award, too, and they can win $1,000 for their efforts.

But first we're counting on you to nominate candidates in four categories — Adult, Non-Profit, Business and Student. And feel free to nominate yourself or your own organization. When it comes to "Stewards of the Environment," we don't want any unsung heroes.

It's that time of year when we ask you to do a good deed for our state's environment — simply by letting us know about a person, organization or company doing a great job helping to protect or improve Connecticut's environment.

Nomination period closes on May 5. We'll name our 2023 Environmental Champions on June 3 at a special event at Connecticut's Beardsley Zoo. For more details or to submit a nomination, head for aquarionwater.com/awards.

For the 13th year, the Aquarion Environmental Champion Awards will honor outstanding, voluntary work benefiting our state's natural resources. Winners can then name a favorite

Time to Get 35% Savings on Upcycled Rain Barrels

Aquarion is again offering you the chance to buy discounted rain barrels to catch and store otherwise wasted run-off water. These lightweight but rugged barrels fill from your downspouts and can hold 60 gallons of water for your garden and other plantings. A brass spigot and hose connection make watering easy, and a screen keeps leaves and bugs out.

just need to reserve your barrel by May 1 for easy pickup in Fairfield, Greenwich, Litchfield, Simsbury, Stonington, or Trumbull.

Normally $125, Aquarion customers can get rain barrels for $80 each. You
